by Rembrandt

There were many challenges facing the early Christian church in the first century and the Apostle Paul addressed these concerns when he wrote each of his letters. The messages in Paul's writings can make a difference in your life too.

Join together with others who follow Christ and will be studying the New Testament book of Colossians.

The study will look at the message written to the church in the ancient city of Colossae while seeking the relevance of this book for followers of Christ who live in the 21st century. The book of Colossians contains very important theology, as well as instructions for living as a Christian.

This inductive study will use the Bible as the primary source of information. The inductive method includes four steps. First you will be asked questions to help you carefully observe the text as you "read with a purpose." The next step involves careful and accurate interpretation of the Scriptures being studied, that you might determine eternal principles from the text, and then apply these Scriptures to the circumstances of your life.
