This inductive study will explore prayers in the Bible and biblical teaching on prayer. Learn about the spiritual discipline of prayer from studying how, when, and why people in the Bible prayed and what Scripture says that encourages believers to pray. Each lesson includes the call to apply what is taught in Scripture about prayer to help believers become closer to the Lord and more mature in their faith.

The Bible study explores a sampling of prayers in the Old and New Testaments to see how the Bible teaches and provides models for prayer. The in-depth study examines the nature and character of God, Christ Jesus, and the Holy Spirit through the study of the prayers of Moses, Job, Hannah, David, Solomon, Old Testament prophets, Christ Jesus, and the Apostle Paul.

This inductive study will use the Bible as the primary source of information. The inductive method includes four steps. First you will be asked questions to help you carefully observe the text as you "read with a purpose." The next step involves careful and accurate interpretation of the Scriptures being studied, that you might determine eternal principles from the text, and then apply these Scriptures to the circumstances of your life.
