

The Story of Jonah

To the tune of Gilligan's Island

1. When Jonah heard a message from the Lord his God on high, he fled from God to Tarshish far, to all he said good-bye, to all he said good-bye.

2. While on the ship a storm came up, the sailors were afraid, they wondered what could be the cause of this tempestuous wave, of this tempestuous wave.

3. Jonah said, "I am the one, to blame for this array, if you will cast me off this ship, the storm will go away, the storm will go away."

4. He was soon thrown overboard, and a giant fish was made, it swallowed him completely up, in its stomach three days he laid, in its stomach three days he laid.

5. While Jonah was inside the fish, he surely wasn't bored, he prayed sincerely from his heart, "Salvations from the Lord!" "Salvation's from the Lord!"

6. As soon as Jonah recognized this truth within his heart, the fish coughed him upon the shore, with a gargantuan barf, with a gargantuan barf.

7. God told him, "Preach in Nineveh, repent or be destroyed." And when they did, he got so mad, he sulked and was annoyed, he sulked and was annoyed.

8. God grew a plant that gave him shade, to teach him from above, God can be mad and merciful, and show mankind His love, and show mankind His love.
